

- ICRYPEX has the right to change the commission rates that investors will earn under the reference system and the layer structure described in relation to the commission discount.
- Investors will only be able to benefit from the campaign if they and their referenced investor perform Customer Level Validation (CLV).
- ICRYPEX reserves the right to terminate the reference system at any time. Investors agree in advance that they cannot claim any rights or receivables in this regard.
- The commission discounts that investors will earn in relation to the transactions realized until the end of the reference system will be reserved.
- In case it is determined by ICRYPEX that the users who will benefit from the reference system try to benefit from the campaign by opening more than one account and make transactions in connection with malicious and illegal purposes, ICRYPEX has the right and authority to cancel the commission discounts defined in the accounts of the users, to remove them from the reference system and to close their accounts.
- ICRYPEX has the right and authority to cancel the commission discounts of the investors who benefit from the commission discount within the layer structure in relation to the transaction made in case it is determined by ICRYPEX that the persons referred by the investors are engaged in illegal and illegal activities within the scope of the reference system. If the said commission discounts have been used by the investors, the amount of the commission discount used will be deducted from the balances in the investors' accounts.
- The terms and conditions of the User Agreement accepted by investors when signing up to www.icrypex.com <http://www.icrypex.com/> shall apply to disputes regarding the reference system and to matters not specified in these terms of use.
